Sampson Advisory Board-

A) Madeline's Christmas- (Fundraiser for PYTCO and Living Well)

We were shown 3 different poster choices. Dusty will combine what we like from each of them to make one and will get it to Becky.

Cast and Crew are to park behind Community Bank and Longs. Handicap parking will be behind the Methodist Church. General Parking will be at Presbyterian Church, the First Baptist Church, and at the County Building. There will be a shuttle bus from the First Baptist Church.

The cast's parents are providing them with pizza. Crew is welcome to go downstairs to eat when they are hungry.

The show will start at 6PM. The first dinner will be served at 5:15 PM and the second dinner will be served at 7:15 PM. Dinner will include: Lasagna, salad, bread, a vegetable, desert, and coffee. Sandi will get foil or take out boxes for people to take home food they did not eat. Dusty will post the menu on our website

Ticket prices are: Adults $20

Seniors (65 yrs and up) $15

Children (11 years and under) $10

Tickets will be available at Living Well

Becky has challenged the cast to sell 10 tickets a piece

Missy is making 3 sandwich boards for the show.

Ann is making costumes.

Dusty has posted on our website and will be doing a mini photo shoot this Saturday for head shots of the cast.

Dean will need help November 2nd to start moving set pieces. He will be starting at noon. Meet him at the Sampson.

- B) Quilt raffle- We made approximately $3000.
- C) The Keuka Quilt Gild has contacted Grace and told her that they are going to have their members wear vintage hats to their Christmas party. They will then donate the hats to us.
- D) Storage- Lights are in the basement of the Sampson. The mud is still there. We need a conveyer belt to get it out.
- E) Survey- Richard has the survey. We will go over it at our joint meeting in January.
- F) Community Meeting/ Comprehensive Planners- the village would like the Sampson to be a business anchor

Old Business:

- A) Miss Penn Yan- Ashley Owens will be our candidate
- B) How do we increase the PYTCO Operating Account? General fundraisers are split 75% to PYTCO and 25% to the Sampson
- C) Website- up and running. Jason is having difficulty linking YouTube pages. Dusty will give Jason the Madeline's Christmas info to put up as well.

New Business:

- A) Information on Fundraising- On Friday, November 14th there will be a "How To" event at Keuka College. It is a 4 hour event and costs $10. Grace has a postcard with all of the information if anyone is interested.
- B) Songs of Gratitude- Kelly Hamilton is putting on an event at Keuka College. There will be a workshop in the afternoon and a performance at night.
- C) Ray has resigned from the school. It will be harder for us to use the school's equipment.

*Next Meeting- November 18, 2014 at the Tourism Alliance
