After Meeting Discussion

Changing the name of PYTCO:

Should the name be more intertwined with the Sampson? People do not know what PYTCO is. We are not sure if they will know us any better if we used a different name. One thought is that we leave the name PYTCO, but refer to ourselves as "our theatre company".

How do we publically connect ourselves with the Sampson? We need to make PYTCO stand out on the Sampson web site. We could put "Sampson Theatre: Home of The Pennsylvania Yankee Theatre Company"

We also need to look into owning the domain name
